

2017 Peru Mission Challenge

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. . . .
being no hearer that forgets but a doer that acts, he shall be blessed in his doing.
James 1:22

The First Presbyterian Church of Bryan's Mission Committee is pleased to offer you the opportunity to partner with its 2017 Peru Mission Challenge Team and members of the Reformed Evangelical Churches of Peru, in the construction of a much needed seminary and retreat center for the training of future pastors and lay leaders of the Synod of the La Convencion Province in Peru.

Where is the 2017 Mission Team going? The Team will fly from Houston to Lima Peru, proceed to the ancient Andean capital of Cuzco and then travel by private van to our home base in Quillabamba ("The land of perpetual summer") in the higher Andes mountain rain forests.

What will the Mission Team members do? Team members will meet, pray, eat and work along side seminarians and indigenous volunteer members of the Reformed Evangelical Church of Peru to build a much needed kitchen facility for a newly constructed seminary.

Who can participate? Anyone 18 years of age or more, who enjoys good health, a spirit for adventure and a desire to experience new cultures with a servant's love-filled heart.

When will the trip take place? The team will depart from Houston on July 19th and return to Houston on the morning of July 30th.

What will it cost to go on this mission trip? Approximately $2,000 which includes:

- A $250 deposit must accompany your application to reserve a place on the Mission Team. This will be immediately reimbursed if your application is not approved;
- Approximately $1,200 for your round-trip ticket between Houston and Lima Peru;
- $550 for transportation, hotel rooms and meals while on the mission trip.

Not included:

- Passports, pre-trip vaccinations, medical evaluations & medications, or emergency medical procedures while on the trip. Trip insurance is encouraged.
- Personal purchases and touring costs that individual participants may wish take.

United Campus Ministry at Texas A&M is offering a limited number of partial scholarships to help defray the travel costs of its participating members.
